Line description

The STEUER JAZZ reed for saxophone is a must-have for all jazz players! The reed has a longer profile than the Traditional models, allowing it to vibrate over a larger surface. The tip and front sides of the reed have been specially designed to offer excellent playing comfort, giving free reign to creativity and advanced improvisational work. Jazz reeds are playable from first use, and offer saxophonists incredibly rich sound colour. STEUER reeds are crafted with the highest standards of quality, exclusively using premium cane grown 100% naturally at Steuer's fields in the Var in France.
